"OUR SON'S STORY" - A PARENTS PERSPECTIVE BY, D. MURPHY

Our son is a typical 7 year and to stop worrying. old boy, he is energetic, funny, kind, caring and never stops talking. He, like most 7 year commenting on his weight and way to fill the day. So we would olds, doesn't have many wor- were asking what we were doing walk down to visit the grandparies in his life, except the usual about it. They questioned what rents for a socially distance visit. things like how does he get he was eating and was he sitting They were shocked that he could more screen time and when can in front of the TV all day. Peo- walk the 5km round trip and still he hang out with his friends again. Unlike most 7 year olds he is living with obesity, but he does not realise this yet. As his parents we are very conscious kept junk food to a minimum for a 5km walk. We knew he what we feed him and we are trying to educate him about think he was around 4 years old never sits down, he is always on healthy eating, while allowing him to enjoy himself and eat rest in the TV. He was too busy plained that he was tired or that what other kids are eating running, climbing and playing he didn't want to walk. And to when he is out. Thankfully he has always been a great eater. felt no one believed us. People over 100,000 steps. He will eat fruit, veg, meat, looked at him with pity, he had fish, rice, pasta etc. So getting two parents who were suffering a balanced diet is not difficult.

We started noticing his weight when he was a toddler, while other toddlers were stretching and losing their baby weight, he wasn't. We assumed he wouhealthy and never stopped mowas that he will grow out of it ple assumed that he must have run around the garden the entibeen eating too much and didn't re time we were there. What hit move enough. This was not the me was they assumed due to his case, we watched his diet and weight that he wouldn't be able and he never stopped moving. I was well able for it because he before he really took any inte- the move. He never once comto sit down for long. Yet we our surprise some weeks he hit from obesity and we felt people were delighted with how much blamed us.

7th birthday and this coincided stepped in. This time they could with lockdown. We were deli- see how much he was moving, ghted because we were starting they saw his Fitbit stats and they ld eventually as he was eating to question was he moving as saw him jumping around the much as we thought or were we house on our family zoom calls. ving. When he started school it making excuses. He was so mo- So they immediately assumed was noticeable that he was big- tivated by it that he would run we were over feeding him. ger than most kids in the class. around the house doing laps of At this point we mentioned it to the sitting room and kitchen had gastric bypass so our eating our GP that we were concerned to get his steps up. He set up habits have changed completeabout his weight and her reply challenges between us and every ly, we eat healthy meals and we night we had to see who won the daily challenge. We started Well meaning family started walking more and more as a

As lockdown continued we he was moving, yet to our surprise his weight went up. This is He asked for a Fitbit for his when well meaning family again

At this stage both of us have don't eat takeaway. Our fami- the recommended calorie intake he is taller than him. This led to lies know this yet they still as- for his age were the days we him mentioning that he is heasume we would give our child visited family. things we don't eat. We started thinking we must be doing something wrong, so we started sessed with who is the oldest, ries he was eating. We had our- with himself because he thinks writing down everything he ate youngest, tallest etc. at the mo- tries to kidnap us they won't get and worked out how many calo- ment. He came home delighted very far trying to carry me". We selves so worked up thinking we he is the youngest in the class yet we didn't know how to respond. were doing something wrong, he is not the smallest in the class. But our hearts broke wondering It must be our fault. And guess His best friend who is 9 months how he came up with that reply. what showed up in those calcu- older than him is the smallest Did he discuss this with his lations? The days he went over and he is proud as punch that friends? Has he been teased

← s	steps
Aug 10 - Aug 16		10
16 Aug	10,061 steps
15 Aug	18,769 steps
14 Aug	14,758 steps
13 Aug	14,333 steps

vier than his friends. We asked him did it bother him that he was His class in school are all ob- heavier. He laughed and said "no it's ok because if someone laughed along with him because about his weight? Did someone say it to him?

> It's left us wondering if he is treated different by the other kids or by the teachers due to his weight. How will this impact him as he grows up? Will other people's bias shape his future in a negative way? As his parents this is very hard to accept.

> So what are we to do with this wonderful little boy who is full of life? Well for now we have decided this burden is something we will carry for him. He has the rest of his life to carry it so for now it belongs with us. We can control to a certain extent what he eats and how much he moves. We can steer him in the right direction to live as healthy as he can. We have sought advice from dieticians and doctors and they all agree we are on the right path. As for well meaning family, I know they mean no harm however I feel an honest conversation about stigma and weight bias is in their future.